No update – it's pretty close to last month's ending balance.

Membership Report – Marge Rhode:

One new application is expected in the near future.

Activities Report – Scott Feck:

Review of recent events:

Pancake Breakfast with Frank & Nancy Hagen (32 people attended)

Packages from Home packing party with Marge & Bill Rhode, Part 2 will be held on Friday, Feb. 4

Discussion of upcoming events:

Super Bowl Party with the Mions

Cooking class w/Marge & Esther

Ostrich Festival w/Bill Rhode – looking for volunteer drivers (10) for the Parade

Driver w/ Frieszes – March 26 to Tortilla Flats and lunch at Gold Canyon Golf Resort ($16/person)

April – Corvettes in the Park w/Jim Enriquez. Arrangements are moving along nicely. Flyers are available. Pre-registration will be available. Count was taken of yellow Staff shirts needed (19) from those members in attendance.

Chandler Air Show has expressed a desire to have corvettes included in their show. Bill is checking to see if they are interested in doing this on Sunday. A count of those possibly interested in participating (12).

Suggestions were solicited (by Scott) for possible Founder's Day drivers. Suggestions included Sedona, Payson (which could include the car show), Arboretum and Saguaro Nat'l monument. Members were encouraged to join up and organize the event together.

Progressive dinner is now set. Hosts for the 3 courses have volunteered.

Mike Myers will be setting up the Highway cleanup. First date will probably be in March.

Frank Hagen gave a short preview of MMT. More info to come in early April.

NCCC- Ray Jenkins: Members should be receiving membership cards. Let Ray know if these are not received by the end of the week.

Next event is Autocross sponsored by ACC on Sunday, Feb. 6

Other NCCC events are included in the CCA calendar.

Website – George Ray: Website is being updated. Notify the Rays with any password problems.
