Dinner after the meeting tonight will be at Floridino's.

August meeting will be a combination dinner/meeting held at Floridino's. Bob presented a couple of options being offered by the restaurant. This will be a test to see how best to handle the situation. Information will be sent by email to all members with the change in location and information will be posted at Thorobred.

Sharon Lund asked about a price limit on the Dine-around choices. At this time there is no specified limit; it's up to the host to choose the location and participants can review the menu for additional information.

NCCC: Ray Jenkins

Ray will be attending an NCCC event in Ruidoso sponsored by the El Paso Club. The event is open to all NCCC members. The Regional Executive Officer position is open and looking for a candidate. Certain expenses associated with this position are covered.

Recent NCCC event – Autocross in Taylor attended by several CCA members.

Website: George Ray

Updates to the website include a calendar and Events Flyer page.

Since most of the information disseminated to members is handled through email, George encouraged members to make sure their email address is included on the club roster and is accurate.

Old Business:

Thorbred Thunder- Posters have arrived and a copy appears on the website. Bill Rhode updated members on recent developments in planning the show. Bill has been in contact with a representative from the Over the Hill Gang group who will be joining CCA for the show. Target number of participants is 200 cars for this year.

New Business:

Mike presented a $100 check to the club from a member's purchase of a new Chevrolet.

Buy/Sell: Ray Jenkins is selling his 2001 Corvette.
