Scott encouraged people to let him know if they have plans for an activity for next year.

NCCC- Ray Jenkins:

Ray will send a report covering Thorobred Thunder to NCCC.

Ray wants a list of members who worked the show and did not show their cars so that they can get points for participation as well.

Ray announced an upcoming Autocross Nov 19 at Tempe Diablo stadium.

Website – George Ray:

Updates have been made recently. Any changes in profiles should be sent to George.

Crosstalk: Bob Swanson

Bob is waiting for pictures of Thorobred Thunder in order to complete the next edition.

Committee Reports:

Chandler Downtown Block Party – Jim Kerber presented information and solicited volunteers to show their cars. He is also looking for volunteers to man the booth.

Corvettes in the Park – update provided by Jim Enriquez. Downtown Merchants group has provided $500 to the club to subsidize the event. The DCCP is working with the club to accommodate some requested concessions.

Thorobred Thunder – 164 vehicles participating (a record!)

The club will subsidize the donations collected to arrive at a $1000 donation to each charity – Packages from Home and Hospice of the Valley.

Thanks and recognition were given to club members who worked the event.

New Business: Mike Terrey announced that today marks the 100th anniversary of Chevrolet motors. Of the general GMC business, Chevrolet produces 70% of that business.

Pam Swanson presented T-shirt information. New options are available and will be posted on the website.

Howard Katz offered thanks to Thorobred Chevrolet for a very pleasant and smooth purchasing experience. The Katz' purchased a new corvette - $100 check to the club.
