Old Business

None

New Business

Mike Terrey presented the Club with a check for $200 from Thorobred Chevrolet in appreciation of the purchase of two cars by members.

Mike also mentioned that members should be aware of an issue with C-7 fuel doors.

The fuel door is integrated with the car locking system. If the fuel door is open and the car locks, a part on the fuel door will break if the fuel door is closed.

Committee Reports

A group of members of the Car Committee met to review plans for Corvettes in the Park and Thorobred Thunder.
