Webmaster – Jim Kerber

Everything is up to date

Committee Reports - None

Old Business - None

New Business - Mike Terrey shared information concerning the sale of Thorobred Chevrolet. The owner has sold the dealership to Earnhardt . No definite date for the conversion, but most likely it will be sometime in the next 30 days. The new name will be Earnhardt Chevrolet and this will be their only Chevrolet dealership. No major changes should impact CCA. Jim Enriquez expressed the club's appreciation of past support from Thorobred and John Simonson.

Correspondence – A thank-you letter acknowledging receipt of a $2000 donation (the proceeds derived from the Corvettes in the Park show) from CCA has been received from Packages From Home.

Buy-Sell –

David Friesz has a 1996 Silverado pick-up and a 2002 Corvette convertible for sale.

Bill Berryman has some C-7 car items for sale.

Raffles:

50/50 - $81 won by Jim Eberst (guest)

$25 Chevron gift card won by Tom Hill
