Activities Report – Jim Kerber

Jennifer Hitzel reported that the Awards Banquet was closed at 44 persons for January 14, at 6PM.

Bob Bassett advised the date of the Sweet Basil cooking class would be January 16, and gave a brief itinerary of the class. He advised that Barb would provide additional information to those who signed up.

The Hagen's pancake breakfast is scheduled February 4th, and a flyer will be posted

The Ostrich Festival Parade will be March 4th and Bill Rhode advised that he was working with the City of Chandler on this event. He indicated that 20-25 Vettes would be needed (convertible or pop-top) and five additional drivers for pickups.

Packages from Home is scheduled for Thursday, January 26, from 10:30AM to 12:30 PM. Several members expressed interested. A flyer will be posted soon. Jim explained the event for members and guests.

The Founders Day event, usually in April, is needing a sponsor.

Jim encouraged all members to come up with ideas for new events.

NCCC – Mike Terrey

CCA currently has 103 members, 98 of which are NCCC members. CCA events currently scheduled under NCCC are the Spring Car Show on April 8, and an Autocross event on April 29, at AMP near Luke AFB. Kim Kemper advised that the sound tolerance at the AMP facility was 96dB at 50 feet, for all those interested who might have modified exhaust.

Thunder Vette Set will hold a 'Spring Break' event in Sierra Vista on Mar 17-18 including a People's Choice show, a gimmick rally and 2 autocross events.

Desert Corvette will hold its annual Sweetheart Show on February 12th at Coulter Cadillac.

Events may be found on the CCA website under NCCC link.

Members-at-Large

Bob Logan

A report from 'Proud Owner by Design' indicated that CCA had purchased $5000 in total sales with $810 in individual purchases.

worth of merchandise in 2016.

Bob would like to set up a merchandise advisory which would allow all members to advise of deals on Corvette paraphernalia, as well as requested items.

Bob displayed a Corvette Calendar for $11.99 on Amazon, and recommended 'Corvette Magazine' for good articles.

Roc Campise – nothing at this time

Webmaster – Howard Katz-not in attendance

Crosstalk – Roc Campise

The Crosstalk came out on January 5th with effort from Roc and Janet Ray. It was asked that future items for the Crosstalk be submitted by the last day of the second month.

Roc also spoke on the MMT, advising the 13 of the 25 spots are already filled and that the estimated fee for the event should be about the same as 2016, $750.

Committee Reports

None

Old Business

President Marge Rhode advised that to date no meeting has been set with Earnhardt, though numerous attempts have been made by Jim Enriquez and herself since the date of Earnhardt Stampede. She advised that if no meeting was scheduled before the next Board Meeting she would consider forming a committee to explore a different sponsor or a no-sponsor club.

New Business

Pat Jenkins reminded everyone that it is Girl Scout Cookie time.

Correspondence

No correspondence. Dave Lott will contact the Post Office and make sure any mail to the old address is forwarded.

Buy – Sell

Bruce Mundy advised that he had a 2008 LT3 red/black Z51 coupe for sale with 52,000 miles and an extended warranty for another five months. He is asking $24,500, but would talk to a member. When asked, he advised the Jan and he were awaiting delivery of a 2017 Grand Sport with automatic.
